<Special Items>

Inbound demand continued to be firm as the number of inbound visitors to Japan recorded the highest in April. Many of the hotels owned by JHR in major local cities steadily attracted inbound leisure demands, and therefore RevPAR of these hotels continues to grow. On the other hand, in a part of cities such as Tokyo, ADR growth is sluggish due to the impact of new supply and other factors.

As for three hotels located in Okinawa (Hotel Nikko Alivila, Okinawa Marriott Resort & Spa and Mercure Okinawa Naha), which are included in three hotel groups, the outbreak of measles in Okinawa region influenced the performance of the three hotels as some of the reservations had been intermittently cancelled since the mid of April, etc. However, RevPAR exceeded those of the same month last year.
