Announcement of Monthly Disclosure for June 2017

With respect to the business performance of the hotels owned by Japan Hotel REIT Investment Corporation (hereinafter called “JHR”) for June 2017, JHR informs you of the monthly sales, occupancy rates, ADR, and RevPAR of rooms department of three hotel groups as below. For each hotel’s track record of hotel operations, please check JHR’s website (Note 1).

JHR continues to announce monthly disclosure of hotels from which JHR receives variable rent or income from management contracts and whose lessees, etc. have agreed with the monthly disclosure.

The number of inbound visitors to Japan recorded the highest in June, and inbound leisure demand continued to be firm. Some hotels in large cities such as Tokyo and Osaka saw decline in ADR, resulting from an impact of new supply, etc. But in many of JHR’s hotels in major local cities, rooms department sales exceeded those of the same month last year, driven by steady inbound leisure demand.

Some of the rooms in ibis Tokyo Shinjuku, one of The Six Accor Hotels, have been unavailable due to renovation, which started in May this year. The hotel carried out renovation work during the same month last year as well, but the work this year is on a larger scale. As a result, the occupancy rate was lower compared with the same month last year.

- (Note 2) The Nine HMJ Hotels are Kobe Meriken Park Oriental Hotel, Oriental Hotel Tokyo Bay, Namba Oriental Hotel, Hotel Nikko Alivila, Oriental Hotel Hiroshima, Okinawa Marriott Resort & Spa, ACTIVE-INTER CITY HIROSHIMA (Sheraton Grand Hiroshima Hotel), Hotel Centraza Hakata, and Holiday Inn Osaka Namba. The Six Accor Hotels are ibis Tokyo Shinjuku, ibis Styles Kyoto Station, ibis Styles Sapporo, Mercure Sapporo, Mercure Okinawa Naha, and Mercure Yokosuka. The Six the b Hotels are the b akasaka-mitsuke, the b ikebukuro, the b ochanomizu, the b hachioji, the b hakata, and the b suidobashi. Also, the Total of Three Hotel Groups is the total of the Nine HMJ Hotels, the Six Accor Hotels, and the Six the b Hotels.
- (Note 3) The comments above have been prepared based on information the asset management company had obtained from the lessees, etc. and are only provided as a reference of general trends.
- (Note 4) Numbers for each month and numbers and information shown in the comments have not been audited nor been the subject of the independent verification of the asset management company. Therefore, no guarantee is made as to the accuracy or completeness of the numbers and information. Also, the amount that is a sum total of each month may be different from total sales for the six-month or full year stated in the annual securities report to be submitted later. Sales of each month may also differ from that stated in the annual securities report. The numbers of The Nine HMJ Hotels, The Six Accor Hotels, The Six the b Hotels, and Total of Three Hotel Groups are calculated by the asset management company based on numbers provided by lessees, etc.
- (Note 5) Occupancy rate: The number of rooms sold during the period is divided by the number of rooms available during the same period.
- (Note 6) ADR (Average Daily Rate): Total rooms revenue for a certain period (excluding service charges) is divided by the total number of rooms sold during the period. Holiday Inn Osaka Namba, the six Accor hotels, and the six the b hotels do not request service charges
- (Note 7) RevPAR (Revenue Per Available Room): Total rooms revenue for a certain period (excluding service charges) is divided by the total number of available rooms during the period. It is the same as multiplying ADR by occupancy rate.
- (Note 8) Occupancy rate is rounded off to the first decimal place. ADR and RevPAR are rounded off to the nearest whole number. Sales are rounded off to the nearest million yen.
- (Note 9) Fluctuation compared with the same month last year means the fluctuation between the concerned month (June) and the same month last year.
- (Note 10) Cumulative total is the cumulative total from the beginning of the period (January) to the concerned month (June).
- (Note 11) Fluctuation of cumulative total compared with last year means the fluctuation between the cumulative total from the beginning of the period (January) to the concerned month (June) and the cumulative total from the beginning of the period last year (January) to the same concerned month (June) last year.
- (Note 12) For track record of hotel operations of hotels which JHR acquired in 2016, numbers provided by previous owners, etc. are used for calculation.
- (Note 13) Sales are only from hotels and exclude rent from non-hotel tenants.
